2. Who is a "public officer" and what is a "public office?"

"Public officer" is a person elected or appointed to a position established by the constitution of the State of Nevada, a statute of this state or an ordinance of any of its counties or incorporated cities and which involves the exercise of a public power, trust or duty. "Public power, trust or duty" means (a) actions taken in an official capacity that involve a substantial and material exercise of administrative discretion in the formulation of public policy; (b) the expenditure of public money; and (c) the enforcement of laws and rules of the state, a county or a city. "Public officer" does not include (a) any justice, judge or other officer of the court system; (b) any member of a board, commission or other body whose function is advisory; (c) any member of a board of trustees for a general improvement district or special district whose official duties do not include the formulation of a budget for the district or the authorization of the expenditure of the district's money; or (d) a county health officer appointed pursuant to NRS 439.290.

"Public office" does not include an office held by (a) any justice, judge or other officer of the court system; (b) any member of a board, commission or other body whose function is advisory; (c) any member of a board of trustees for a general improvement district or special district whose official duties do not include the formulation of a budget for the district or the authorization of the expenditure of the district's money; or (d) a county health officer appointed pursuant to NRS 439.290.

3. When must the Financial Disclosure Statement be filed?

Candidates for public office must file a Financial Disclosure Statement no later than the 10th day after the last day to qualify for the office. [NRS 281.561, Subsection 1(a)]

Elected public officers must file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement on or before January 15th of each year of the term, including the year the term expires. [NRS 281.561, Subsection 1(b)]

Appointed public officers entitled to receive annual compensation of $6,000.00 or more must file a Financial Disclosure Statement within 30 days of their appointment and annually thereafter on or before January 15th. [S.B. 147, Section 1.7]

Elected and appointed public officers who leave office on a date other than the expiration of their term or anniversary of their election or appointment must file a Financial Disclosure Statement within 60 days of leaving office. [NRS 281.561, Subsection 1(c); S.B. 147, Section 1.7]

4. What is the civil penalty for willfully failing to timely file a Financial Disclosure Statement?

1-10 days late:	$25.00
11-20 days late:	$50.00
21-30 days late:	$100.00
31-45 days late:	$250.00
45 or more days late (or not filed):	$2,000

5. If I serve in more than one public office, must I file multiple Financial Disclosure Statements?

No. A public officer may use one Financial Disclosure Statement to satisfy the requirements of NRS 281.561, Subsection 1, for all public offices in which he or she serves. [NRS 281.561, Subsection 3]

Also, a public officer may use a Financial Disclosure Statement filed pursuant to one provision of Subsection 1 of NRS 281.561 to satisfy the requirements of another provision thereof if the initial statement was filed not more than 3 months before the other statement is required to be filed. [NRS 281.561, Subsection 3]

6. What is the definition of "household" for purposes of the Financial Disclosure Statement?

"Household" includes:

- (a) The spouse of a candidate for public office or public officer;
- (b) A person who does not live in the same home or dwelling, but who is dependent on and receiving substantial support from the candidate for public office or public officer; and
- (c) A person who lived in the home or dwelling of the candidate for public office or public officer for 6 months or more in the year immediately preceding the year in which the candidate or public officer files the financial disclosure statement.
